Swale Business Bulletin

Issue 9 June 2009

Welcome to the ninth edition of our Swale Business Bulletin, working towards better communication with you, the local business community.

SWALE BUSINESS AWARDS 2009

Are you the next winner?

This bulletin is to inform you about the Swale Business Awards 2009 and encourage you to enter.

These special awards have been organised and sponsored by Swale Borough Council and your peers in the region, with the purpose of celebrating the best of Swale businesses.

A gala awards evening on Friday 18th September at Kent Science Park will celebrate the 12 finalists and overall winners, with a cash prize pot to be shared. Even simply entering the awards is a fantastic opportunity to promote your business, as all entrants are profiled in the East Kent Gazette.

The size of your company does not matter and can cover firms with a single proprietor to a larger organisation. There will be one category up to a £5.6 million turnover with an overall winner.

To enter simply go to <http://www.sbawards.co.uk> where you can register and download a PDF to enter or contact info@sbawards.co.uk.

The awards comprise of 12 finalists chosen from the many entries, a panel of three judges sift through each entry until they come down to the final 12. The judges visit each company via appointment over a two day period then whittle those down to select the overall winner. The judges are open to deciding special merit awards such as new business, or best entrepreneur.

So what are you waiting for, you could be the next winner of the Swale Business Awards 2009.
